This afternoon, US DOT officially announced the awardees of the FY'17 TIGER competitive grants. The list of recipients and a description of the projects can be found here. A press release, issued by the Department, can be read here.

Although the Trump Administration has recommended eliminating the TIGER program, Congress saw fit to fund the program in FY'17 at $500M and is expected to do so again in the pending FY'18 US DOT appropriations bill.

US DOT selected 41 projects with more than 64% of the funds going to projects in rural areas.
